

O2.2_Profile Gastroenterologist

Profile title	GASTROENTEROLOGIST
Role	Sending relevant patients to oncogenetic pre- and post-diagnostic consultations, monitoring and managing patients with proved genetical GI disorders according to the personalized oncogenetic monitoring program
Minimal requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - specialist in Gastroenterology - with at least 3-years of experience; - knowledge in the field of Oncogenetics, hereditary cancer risk assessment and patient management
Professional competences:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Up-to-date knowledge in gastroenterology and clinical oncogenetics, including skill to perform high-quality endoscopy, skill to diagnose polyposis syndromes and HNPCC and other inherited malignancies, understanding of the basic molecular mechanisms, diagnostic options, international guidelines in clinical care 2. Understanding the molecular genetic test results in a clinical context 4. Managing the Personalised follow-up of proved inherited syndromes 5. Evaluating the need for psychosocial support for patients and family members.
Transversal competences:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Communicating with the possibility of inherited GI syndromes consultation patient/family 2. Advanced skills in patient communication and multidisciplinary team work. 3. Communicating with clinical genetics specialist concerning to the genetic test and results 4. Communicating within the Multidisciplinary Consulting Group in order to decide personalised endoscopical/surgical strategies 5. Communicating with specialists in charge of covering the stages of the personalised oncogenetic monitoring program for patients/families with inherited cancer risk 6. Carrying out interdisciplinary collaboration with a view to upgrading work methodologies and launching new research plans 7. Good knowledge of a foreign language (listening/ reading/ speaking/ writing) (English/ French).